

BAR ACT

(Unofficial restated wording)

The Official Gazette of the Republic of Slovenia, No. 18-817/1993, dated 9 April 1993, Official Gazette of the Republic of Slovenia, No. 24-1465/1996, dated 10 May 1996 – Decision by the Constitutional Court, Official Gazette of the Republic of Slovenia, No. 24-1455/2001, dated 5 April 2001.

I. BASIC PROVISIONS

Article 1

The Bar as a part of justice shall be an autonomous and independent service.

Lawyers and/or lady lawyers shall be engaged in the Bar as a free-lance profession.

The right to the law practice shall be acquired with the admission to the Bar.

Article 2

Within the scope of his law practice the lawyer shall give legal advice, represent and defend his clients in courts and in front of other authorities, draw up documents and act on his clients' behalf in their legal relationships.

Unless otherwise provided by the law, it is exclusively by the lawyer that a client may be represented in courts against remuneration.

Article 2.a

A foreign lawyer who has acquired the right to practise his profession in his parent country may perform in the Republic of Slovenia, under the terms and conditions specified herein, the following services:

- Lawyer's services,
- Legal profession appertaining to the professional title acquired in his parent country,
- Legal profession appertaining to the professional title of "lawyer".

A parent country is the country where the lawyer is entitled to practise his legal profession under the professional title acquired under the regulations of the respective country.

Pursuant to this Act, a lawyer from a foreign country that is member of the European Union is the lawyer who is entitled to practise his legal profession in one of the member countries of the European Union under the professional title acquired in compliance with the regulations of the respective country.

Article 3

The lawyer shall be autonomous and independent in his practice.

Article 4

The lawyer may practise his profession individually or within a law firm, in compliance with the provisions hereof. The provisions hereof relating to an individual lawyer shall also apply to a law firm, unless otherwise provided herein.

II. LAWYERS' RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

Article 5

The lawyer shall freely decide whether to assume the representation of the client who has addressed himself to him. The lawyer shall not refuse the representation of the client if appointed for the client's defender or mandatory by the court in compliance with the law. The lawyer may only refuse his representation if there exist reasons for which he is obliged to refuse the representation or for other justified reasons.

The lawyer shall refuse the representation if he has represented the opposing party in the same case, if the opposing party has been represented by a lawyer working in the same law office or if as a prospective entrant or pupil he worked with a lawyer representing the opposing party, if in the same case he acted as judge, attorney general, authorized official of the Home Office or as official in administrative proceedings as well as in other cases specified by the law.

Article 6

The lawyer shall respect the confidentiality of all information entrusted to him by his client.

The duty referred to in the preceding paragraph shall also be binding upon other persons working in the law office.

Article 7

The lawyer shall not be subject to detention in criminal procedure, introduced against him for suspicion of criminal offense, committed at practising the legal profession, without preliminary consent of the Senate of three judges of a higher court, established on the territory of the court of first instance where the procedure is conducted.

The ordinance of detention shall be communicated by the court to the Bar Association of Slovenia.

Article 8

An investigation of the law office shall be permitted only subject to an ordinance of the competent court and only with reference to the records and objects explicitly stated in the ordinance of investigation. The investigation shall not affect the confidentiality of other documents and objects.

Present at the investigation of the law office shall be a representative of the Bar Association of Slovenia.

Article 9

The Bar Association of Slovenia shall insure the lawyer against responsibility for damage that the client might incur with reference to the law practice.

The prime shall be paid out of the lawyer's insurance fee to the Bar Association.

Article 10

Governmental bodies, organizations and individuals with public powers of attorney shall provide the lawyer with the information required at his law practice relating to individual case.

The lawyer shall be entitled to require from database administrators the personal data whenever required for procedural acts within the scope of the client's representation.

The lawyer shall not have the right referred to in the preceding paragraph, if reference is made to the personal data, according to specific legal provisions accessible only to authorized bodies.

Article 11

The lawyer shall have the right to use, within the scope of the law and his power of attorney, any appeal which he considers useful to the client he is representing.

At representation of the client the lawyer shall act conscientiously, honestly, with due diligence and in compliance with the rules of professional conduct.

Article 12

The power of attorney may be any time cancelled by both the client and the lawyer.

Upon cancellation of the power of attorney the lawyer shall act for the respective client for another month, if he is required to prevent from any damage that the client might incur in this time.

The duty referred to in the preceding paragraph shall not be binding upon the lawyer if the power of attorney is cancelled by the client.

Article 13

The lawyer is not obliged to return the power of attorney to the client, whereas the client is entitled to require that the cancellation of the power of attorney be noted on the power of attorney by himself.

Article 14

Upon termination of representation, the lawyer shall hand out to the client the original copies of his documents and records, including those acquired in compliance with Article 10 hereof.

If the lawyer's performance and costs remain unpaid, the lawyer shall have the right to order for himself at the client's cost the transcription of the documents required for identification of the payment for his performance and costs.

The lawyer shall not be obliged to hand out to the client the draft records, client's letters to the lawyer nor other confidential letters and proofs about both the effected and still outstanding payments. On the client's demand and at his costs the lawyer shall hand out to him the respective transcriptions.

The lawyer shall keep the records for five years upon termination of the client's representation. Upon the lapse of this time, he shall destroy them in the presence of a commission in the way specified by the by-laws of the Bar Association of Slovenia.

Article 15

The lawyer shall apply his seal and his signature to every application and document drawn up by him.

Article 16

At representation of clients the lawyer may be replaced by a lawyer from the same law office and within the limits of the law by a prospective entrant employed with him and/or by a pupil working in his office (substitution).

Except in the cases referred to in the preceding paragraph, substitution by an other lawyer shall only be acceptable for individual process tasks, unless explicitly objected to it by the client.

The prospective entrant and the pupil shall prove their identity with the identification card.

Article 17

The lawyer shall be entitled to the payment for his performance and to the reimbursement of costs related to the performed task, according to the lawyer's fee.

The lawyer shall be entitled to higher payment for his performance than deserving according to the lawyer's fee, if so agreed with the client in writing.

In property related matters the lawyer may agree with the client on such payment that instead of the payment according to the lawyer's fee he may claim at maximum a 15 per cent share of the amount awarded to the client by the court. The agreement shall be made in writing.

Article 18

The lawyer shall have the right to retain from the amounts of money received for his client the amount of the agreed payment and costs for his performance. The lawyer shall issue to his client a statement of account.

Article 19

The lawyer's fee shall be adopted by the Bar Association of Slovenia in agreement with the Minister of Justice.

Article 20

At decision-making on specification of payment and compensation of costs incurred through lawyer's representation in procedures, courts and other bodies shall use the lawyer's fee.

The payment and the costs shall be accounted according to the lawyer's fee in force on the decision date, unless otherwise provided by the lawyer's fee for individual cases.

Article 21

Incompatible with legal profession are:

1. Practising of other job, save in the fields of science, teaching, art or journalism;
2. Practising of paid civil service;
3. Running of a notary's office;
4. Belonging to the executives of the company;
5. Performance of other jobs contrary to good reputation and independence of the legal profession.

The lawyer shall not advertise his activity.

Article 22

The lawyer shall practise his legal profession virtually and permanently.

If the lawyer is elected or appointed to a public office requiring professional engagement, his legal profession shall be suspended for the term of his office.

In the case referred to in the preceding paragraph as well as in other cases when the lawyer for justified reasons cannot practise his legal profession for a longer period of time, the lawyer shall agree with some other lawyer about general substitution or about temporary take-over of his law office and shall inform the Bar Association of Slovenia thereof.

If prior to the take-up of the public office and/or in due time the lawyer fails to act in compliance with the provision of the preceding paragraph, the person temporarily taking over his office shall be appointed by the Bar Association of Slovenia.

Article 23

The lawyer shall be free to choose and change his registered office and shall prior to each changing of location inform the Bar Association of Slovenia thereof.

The lawyer cannot have a subsidiary of his law office in the Republic of Slovenia.

Article 24

When practising his legal profession in the court the lawyer shall wear an official gown.

The type of the official gown and the examples of wearing it shall be specified by the Minister of Justice.

III. RIGHT OF PRACTISING THE LEGAL PROFESSION

Article 25

The legal profession can be practised by everybody who fulfills the following terms and conditions:

1. To be a citizen of the Republic of Slovenia,
2. To be business active and in general health condition,
3. To hold the professional title of Bachelor of Law (B.Law) acquired in the Republic of Slovenia or to hold a Bachelor's Degree in Law acquired abroad and recognized in the Republic of Slovenia,

6. To have an active command of the Slovenian language,
7. To be reliable for practising the legal profession,
8. To dispose of equipment and premises required and suitable for practising the legal profession.

One year's practice with a lawyer shall be identical to the practice of the same duration with a notary public.

The condition referred to in Item 5 of the first paragraph of this Article shall also be fulfilled by the person who has not completed the minimum one year's practice in the law office, if he has held the office of judge, public prosecutor or public attorney for at least five years.

Article 26 - deleted

(Act on Modifications and Amendments of the Bar Act - Official Gazette of the Republic of Slovenia, No. 24-1455/2001).

Article 27

Who has been condemned for criminal offense for which he has been morally undeserving to practise the legal profession, or who behaves in the way that it can be justly inferred from his acts that he will not practise his legal profession fairly and conscientiously, shall not be considered reliable for practising the legal profession.

If the application for admission to the Bar is rejected for the reasons specified in the preceding paragraph, no new application for entry can be entered before the lapse of two years after the effective date of the rejective decision.

If the application for admission to the Bar is filed by a person subject to criminal procedure due to intentional criminal offense prosecuted on the official duty, the decision on the admission to the Bar shall be postponed till the effect of the decision under the above procedure.

Article 28 - abrogated

(Decision by the Constitutional Court of the Republic of Slovenia, Official Gazette of the Republic of Slovenia No. 24-1465/1996).

Article 29

In case of subsequent discovery of the facts indicating that at entry the lawyer failed to fulfill the conditions specified by the law, the procedure for admission to the Bar shall be resumed irrespective of the time interval.

If with reference to the data collected in the preceding and resumed procedure the preceding decision needs to be replaced by a new one under which admission to the Bar is not allowed, the preceding decision shall become null and void and the admission to the Bar with posterior effect shall be revoked.

Article 30

The lawyer shall be disbarred:

1. If he dies;
2. If he declares in writing that he does not want to practise the legal profession any more;
3. If he is sentenced by an effective judgment to a punishment of six month imprisonment or to a more severe punishment in case of an intentional criminal offense prosecuted under official duty;
4. In case of protective or security measure imposed upon him as prohibition to practise the legal profession;
5. If he is engaged in activities that are incompatible with good reputation and independence of the lawyer (Article 21);
6. If without justified reason he has not practised the legal profession for more than one year;
7. If he is discovered not to comply any more with the legally prescribed terms and conditions for practising the legal profession;
8. If the admission to the Bar has become null and void;
9. In case of imposition of a disciplinary measure involving deprivation of the right to practise the legal profession;
10. If the Law Firm is terminated subject to the completed bankruptcy or liquidation procedures or if the lawyer withdraws from the Law Firm and within one month does not proceed by practising his legal profession individually or as a partner to some other Law Firm.

A foreign lawyer entitled to practise his legal profession in the Republic of Slovenia under the professional title from his parent country shall also be disbarred if he is no more entitled to practise his legal profession in his parent country.

Article 31

The Roll shall be kept by the Bar Association of Slovenia.

The Roll shall consist of:

- The Roll of lawyers – citizens of the Republic of Slovenia,
- The Roll of foreign lawyers entitled to practise their legal profession in the Republic of Slovenia under the professional title of "lawyer",
- The Roll of foreign lawyers entitled to practise their legal profession under the professional title from his parent country.

The admission to the Bar and/or the disbaring shall be subject to the decision of the body specified by the by-laws of the Bar Association of Slovenia, in the administrative procedure.

No appeal shall be filed against the decision of the body referred to in the preceding paragraph.

The decision issued in the procedure of admission to the Bar and/or disbaring shall be sent by the body referred to in the second paragraph hereof to the Ministry of Justice within fifteen days after being issued.

The Ministry of Justice may commence a civil administrative litigation against the decision referred to in the preceding paragraph, if it involves the breach of the law to the benefit of the individual.

The disbaring for the reasons stated in Items 4 and 9 of the preceding article shall take place subject to a valid decision, and the disbaring for the reason stated in Para. 2 of the preceding Article shall be effected on the basis of the notice by the competent body from the lawyer's parent country.

Article 32

Prior to the admission to the Bar the lawyer shall make the following oath in front of the President of the Bar Association of Slovenia: "I swear to observe the legal system of the Republic of Slovenia and to practise the legal profession conscientiously, honestly and with due dignity."

On admission to the Bar the Bar Association of Slovenia shall issue to the lawyer a professional identity card. In a foreign lawyer's professional identity card it is necessary to enter the professional title that the foreign lawyer is entitled to use in accordance with this Act, as well as the authority he is registered with in his parent country.

Article 33

The lawyer who has been awarded the title of specialist in a certain subject or the academic title of Master of Law shall on his demand be recognized the status of specialist lawyer, provided that he has practised the legal profession and/or has held a judicial office in the claimed domain for at least five years.

The lawyer who has been elected assistant senior lecturer, associate professor or full professor of the Faculty of Law, shall be recognized the status of lawyer specialized in the legal domain where he practiced his pedagogical and scientific work, even if he does not fulfill the conditions of the five years' practice required in the preceding paragraph.

The requirement referred to in the first paragraph of this Article shall be subject to the decision of the body referred to in the third paragraph of Article 31 hereof. There shall be no appeal against its decision.

Article 34

The lawyer may indicate with his name the legal domain for which he has been recognized the status of specialist lawyer, as well as the professional title he is entitled to use in accordance with the Act.

VI. PUPILS

Article 45

The person undergoing the training with a lawyer for acquiring the right to take the Common Professional Examination in compliance with the provisions specified herein and in a special law shall hold the status of a pupil. The pupil can start his pupillage upon his entry onto the List of Pupils.

The entry onto the List referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be subject to the decision of the body referred to in the third paragraph of Article 31 hereof. There shall be no appeal against its decision.

On the entry onto the List of Pupils the Bar Association shall issue to the pupil his identity card.

Article 46

The pupillage shall be provided by the Bar Association.

If the pupil fails to provide for his pupillage by himself, the Bar Association shall provide him the pupillage with a lawyer or a Law Firm at the latest within three months after the effective date of the decision on the entry onto the List of Pupils.

Article 47

The lawyer shall care for professional training of his pupil and shall enable him to undergo all-round training for independent practice of his legal profession.
The pupil shall not practise his legal profession independently and in his own name.

Article 48

The time of the pupillage in a law office shall be included onto the compulsory one year's practice specified as a prerequisite for acquisition of the right to the legal practice (Item 5 of the first paragraph of Article 25).

Article 49

The pupil shall be deleted from the List of Pupils:

1. If he declares that he is not willing to continue his pupillage in the law office;
2. If it is discovered that he does not any more comply with the terms and conditions of pupillage, such as specified by the law;
3. If he does not practise his pupillage with a lawyer without justified reason for more than three months;
4. Upon expiration of the time scheduled for pupillage in the law office;
5. If he is imposed the disciplinary measure of denying the right to pupillage in a law office.

The deletion for the reason specified in Item 5 of the preceding paragraph shall be effected on the basis of the valid decision of the disciplinary body.

VII. PROSPECTIVE ENTRANTS

Article 50

Labelled as prospective entrant may be the person who fulfills the terms and conditions specified in items 1 through 4 as well as 6 and 7 of the first paragraph of Article 25 hereof and who has acquired the consent of the lawyer or of the Law Firm where he will be employed.

Article 51

The prospective entrant may start his practice in the law office after being entered onto the List of Prospective Entrants kept by the Bar Association.

Entered onto the List of Prospective Entrants, subject to the principle of mutuality, may also be a foreign citizen, provided that he fulfills the terms and conditions specified in items 2 through 4 as well as 6 and 7 of the first paragraph of Article 25 hereof and that he has acquired the consent of the lawyer or of the Law Firm where he will be employed.

Article 52

The entry onto the List of Prospective Entrants shall be subject to the decision of the body referred to in the second paragraph of Article 31 hereof. There shall be no appeal against its decision.

The application for entry into the List of Prospective Entrants shall be accompanied by the declaration of the lawyer and/or Law Firm that the prospective entrant will work in the law office.

Article 53

On the entry onto the List of Prospective Entrants the Bar Association shall issue to the prospective entrant his identity card.

Article 54

The prospective entrant shall not practise the legal profession independently and in his own name.

Article 55

The prospective entrant can replace the lawyer at all tasks referred to in Article 2 hereof, but cannot replace him at representation in the Supreme Court of the Republic of Slovenia nor in the Constitutional Court of the Republic of Slovenia.

Article 56

The prospective entrant shall conclude with the lawyer a labour contract for the term of his employment in the law office.

Article 57

If the prospective entrant changes the law office, he shall not be deleted from the List of Prospective Entrants. The prospective entrant shall inform the Bar Association of his continuation of practise in an other law office and shall enclose to his note the declaration of the lawyer and/or of the Law Firm where he will continue his practise.

Article 58

The prospective entrant shall be deleted from the List of Prospective Entrants:

1. If he declares that he is not willing to continue his practise in the law office;
2. If the lawyer cancels the Labour Contract and the prospective entrant fails to enter into a Labour Contract with an other lawyer within eight days;
3. If it is discovered that he does not any more comply with the terms and conditions of prospective entrant's practise, such as specified by the law;
4. If he is imposed the disciplinary measure of denying the right to practise in a law office.

The deletion for the reason specified in Item 4 of the preceding paragraph shall be effected on the basis of the valid decision of the disciplinary body.

VIII. DISCIPLINARY RESPONSIBILITY OF LAWYERS, PUPILS AND PROSPECTIVE ENTRANTS

Article 59

The lawyer shall practise his legal profession conscientiously and shall be held responsible for the respective breaches. The pupil and the prospective entrant shall do their practice in the law office conscientiously and shall be held responsible for the respective breaches.

Article 60

The by-laws of the Bar Association shall specify the acts that involve the breach of duties in the practice of legal profession as well as the acts that involve the breach of conscientious practice and pupillage in the law office.

Article 61

In the disciplinary proceedings against lawyers and prospective entrants there shall be imposed the following disciplinary measures: warning, reprimand, fine and denial of the right to practise the legal profession or the practice in a law office.

In the disciplinary proceedings against pupils there shall be imposed the following disciplinary measures: warning, reprimand and denial of the right to pupillage in a law office.

The denial of the right to practise the legal profession may be imposed for a five years' period and the denial of the right to practice and/or pupillage in a law office for a period of up to three years.

Article 62

A fine may be imposed within the limits specified by the Bar Association with a general enactment.

The disciplinary measure involving the denial of the right to practice and/or pupillage in the law office may be specified and imposed only in case of severe breaches at practising of legal profession, practice or pupillage in the law office due to which the lawyer is not considered reliable for practising the legal profession (see the first paragraph of Article 27).

Article 63

In case of disciplinary proceedings introduced for breach of the duty for which it is possible to impose the disciplinary measure involving the denial of the right to practise the legal profession, the practice and/or pupillage in the law office, the disciplinary body may impose on the lawyer, the prospective entrant or the pupil temporary prohibition of practising the legal profession, practice or pupillage in the law office.

The temporary prohibition may last till the conclusion of the disciplinary proceedings, yet at maximum three months.

Article 63.a

The demand for the imposition of the disciplinary proceeding against a foreign lawyer, that has been entered into the Roll of foreign lawyers in accordance with Article 34.b hereof, shall be conveyed by the disciplinary prosecutor to the competent authority in the lawyer's parent country.

Disciplinary bodies are obliged to enable the competent authorities of the lawyer's parent country to participate in the proceeding with their proposals in favour of the lawyer.

Disciplinary penalties and temporary measures that impose a restriction on the lawyer's practise may only be pronounced with the validity in the Republic of Slovenia.

If the competent authority from the lawyer's parent country temporarily or permanently deprives the lawyer of his licence for practising the legal profession, such measure involves the prohibition of practising the legal profession in the Republic of Slovenia.

Furthermore, Para. 1 hereabove shall apply mutatis mutandi in the event of introduction of the disciplinary proceeding against the lawyer who is also entitled to perform the legal profession in a foreign country.

Article 64

Disciplinary matters against the lawyer, the prospective entrant and/or the pupil shall be subject to the decision of the disciplinary commission, except in the matters which in compliance with the provisions specified herein fall under the competence of the Disciplinary Board.

In front of the disciplinary commission and in the Disciplinary Board the charge shall be represented by the disciplinary prosecutor elected by the Assembly of the Bar Association.

The President and the members of disciplinary commissions of the first and the second instances as well as the disciplinary prosecutor shall be elected by the Assembly of the Bar Association out of the lawyers for the term specified by the by-laws of the Bar Association.

Further details about disciplinary bodies referred to in the preceding paragraph as well as their composition shall be specified by the by-laws of the Bar Association.

Article 65

Disciplinary matters due to the breach of the legal duties for which it is possible to deny the right to practise the legal profession, the practice and/or the pupillage in the law office shall be subject to the decision of the Disciplinary Board in the Senate that consists of two judges of the Supreme Court of the Republic of Slovenia and of three lawyers. The President of the Senate shall be a judge.

An appeal against the decision of the Disciplinary Board referred to in the preceding paragraph may be filed and shall be subject to the decision of the Supreme Court of Slovenia in the Senate of five judges.

Unless otherwise provided herein, the procedure in the Disciplinary Board shall follow the provisions of the Law of Criminal Procedure.

Article 66

Both judges, members of the Disciplinary Board Senate, shall be appointed in advance with the annual time schedule of activities of the Supreme Court of the Republic of Slovenia. The lawyers, members of the Senate, shall be elected by the Assembly of the Bar Association for a two years' term.

The members of the Disciplinary Board Senate shall have deputies who shall act as members whenever for separation or any other justified reason the latter cannot perform their offices. The deputies shall be appointed and/or elected in the same way as the members of the Senate.

The members of the Senate from among lawyers and their deputies cannot hold any other offices in the Bar Association bodies nor can they be employed in the expert team of the Bar Association.

Article 67

The disciplinary prosecutor shall require the introduction of the disciplinary proceedings, if he is informed of the facts and evidences on the basis whereof it is possible to soundly infer that the lawyer and/or the prospective entrant or the pupil has violated his duty.

In his demand for introduction of the disciplinary proceedings, the disciplinary prosecutor shall specify the breach of duty as well as state the facts and propose evidences to be submitted for their identification.

On the demand of the President of the Court and the Minister of Justice, the disciplinary prosecutor shall require the introduction of the disciplinary proceedings in front of the Disciplinary Board.

Article 68

Once the Disciplinary Committee of the first instance receives the demand of the disciplinary prosecutor for introduction of the disciplinary proceedings, it shall send it to the lawyer and/or to the prospective entrant or the pupil against whom the demand has been filed, so that the latter can make a reply to the statements of the demand.

Upon receipt of the reply, the President of the Disciplinary Committee of the first instance shall order a preliminary investigation, if required.

Article 69

The Disciplinary Committee of the first instance shall pass the decision upon the oral trial.

The oral trial shall not be public, except on explicit demand of the lawyer and/or the prospective entrant or the pupil against whom the disciplinary proceedings has been in progress.

Article 70

An appeal against the decision of the Disciplinary Committee of the first instance may be filed within fifteen days. The appeal may be filed by the lawyer and/or by the prospective entrant or by the pupil subject to the disciplinary proceedings, and by the disciplinary prosecutor.

The appeal shall be subject to the decision of the Disciplinary Committee of the second instance without oral trial.

Article 71

Further details on the proceedings in front of the Disciplinary Committee shall be regulated by the by-laws of the Bar Association.
