I am very social, open-minded and good at connecting with people. People often say that I am very good listener. My other advantages are good coordination and negotiation skills where I would emphasize on my problem solving and decision making abilities. Lastly, I would like to add that I am also good at mentoring.

Personal interests

Reading, Chess, Sport activities

During the studies I was focused on finishing exams as soon as possible and trying to learn and understand basic knowledge combined with most details occasionally going too much deep. The law is related to many life events and it is very wide. My interests were highest in commercial law, tax law, criminal law, civil law. I am very eager to further expand my knowledge throughout practicing law and studying theory. Currently I am studying English language for lawyers, the book written by Slobodan D. Jovanović named Engleski za poslenike pravne struke.

My friends say that I am workaholic and I don't look at work as a burden, in fact, it is opposite. Besides, they describe me as charismatic, pragmatic, responsible and trustworthy. In my opinion, I have a very strong character. When approaching tasks, I always try to find the most effective way to do something with minimum resources involved while achieving the best results.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,

Tomišić Danilo
